Budget Snow - delicious dinner - nice to see Jim & Ella again

Best wishes, Lots of Love, your old mom This house of logs is quite a treat as a place to talk and a place to eat In Germany we stand alone
I'm not wishing for a house of stone.
If only all those people could See this house all made of wood Then perhaps they'd see the light Beside the sea all blue and white A house of logs and a beach of sand, are what we like about this land!
